Dear Mr Vick

I write to highlight a speech I recently gave in Federal Parliament regarding Warradale Primary School and the school's 60th Birthday celebrated on 22 October 2020.

I was delighted to speak on this significant milestone, and to share details of Warradale Primary School's rich history and contributions to our local community over the last 60 years.

With this letter you will find enclosed a copy of my speech delivered on Wednesday 21 October 2020.

Thank you for all that you continue to achieve within our local community. I wish you all the very best as the year draws to a close.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should I be able to offer you any assistance in the future.

Yours sincerely

Boothby Electorate: Warradale Primary School

Ms Nicolle Flint MP
Wednesday, 21 October 2020

Ms FLINT (Boothby—Government Whip) (13:59): On 22 October, the Warradale Primary School community will celebrate their 60th birthday. Warradale Primary has a rich history. As Adelaide's population grew with the post World War II baby boom and overseas migration, so did the need for a new primary school in the area. To meet the demand driven by local families, Warradale Primary School was built on repurposed orchards and opened in May 1960 with 274 students.

Fast forward to 2020 and the school boasts 376 students and 26 teachers, led by Principal Josh Vick and Deputy Principal Sarah French. Warradale has an active governing council, chaired by Mrs Carol Douglas, and it also manages the operation of the Warradale Urban Camp School, which is co-located on the site. The urban camp school was established in 1983 and provides low-cost accommodation for students from isolated regional areas who are visiting Adelaide for educational and sporting activities.

Warradale Primary School is a very environmentally conscious school and has a number of initiatives, including eight vegie patches, a native food trail and a wetlands program run in conjunction with the urban camp school. I have been delighted to visit Warradale Primary over my years as the member for Boothby, including their breakfast club. I have welcomed many of their year 6 and year 7 students to Parliament House as well. I wish Warradale Primary and its school community a very happy 60th birthday.
